To bid on an item, write your Bidder Number and the amount on the Bid Sheet. Please write clearly. SANCA will not be held responsible due to incorrect or illegible information.

Opening bids must be at the minimum price listed and raised by the minimum increments, or higher. Any bids not adhering to this format may be invalid and void.

Walking in Orion

Artist Morgan Sobel, originally from Orcas Island, is passionate about oil painting theatre, composing and performing guitar music, and woodworking. His work includes scenic designs for SANCA's Cirrus Circus and Acrobatic Conundrum shows. In his paintings, he strives to weave a gossamer, organic web between foreground, mid-ground, and background and between deep places and emerging light. "Walking in Orion" was inspired by a Hubble image of the Orion Nebula in which he saw a figure crystalizing or dissolving.
